Mission Statement: To assist those in their quest for optimal health and living a MAXimized LIFEstyle!

At MaxLife, our objective is to match up our care with your goals. Our first priority is to improve your overall quality of life. Our second priority is to address the underlying issues that are causing you complications with your overall health. Our third priority is to address what cause(s) these issues to begin with. Lastly, what can be done to prevent these issues from causing overall health complications in the future. You will have an opportunity to pursue the type of care that best suits your needs. We will present to you optimal recommendations and other options that may be more suitable considering your circumstances as well.

We recognize there are three categories of stress; chemical, physical and mental stresses that can afflict the body. We will educate you on what causes the body to break down and what can be done to increase the likelihood of preventing the same type(s) of things happening in the future.

What are the reason(s) for you presenting to our office today (if you're coming in for performance-based care and have no issues state that as well):

Patient Health Information Consent Form

We want you to know how your Patient Health Information (PHI) is going to be used in this office and your rights concerning those records. Before we begin any health care operations we must require you to read and sign this consent for stating that you understand and agree with how your records will be used. If you would like to have a more detailed account of our policies and procedures concerning the privacy of your PHI, we encourage you to read the HIPAA NOTICE that is available to you at the front desk before signing this consent.

1. The patient understands and agrees to allow this chiropractic office to use their PHI for the purpose of treatment, payment, healthcare operations and coordination of care. As an example, the patient agrees to allow this chiropractic office to submit requested PHI to the Health Insurance Company (or companies) provided by the patient for the purpose of payment. Be assured that this office will limit the release of all PHI to the minimum needed for what the insurance companies require for payment.
2. The patient has the right to examine and obtain a copy of his or her own health records at any time and request corrections. The patient may request to know what disclosures have been made and submit in writing any further restrictions on the use of their PHI. Our office is not obligated to agree to those restrictions.
3. A patient's written consent need only be obtained one time for all subsequent care given to the patient in this office.
4. The patient may provide a written request to revoke consent at any time during care. This would not effect the use of those records for the care given prior to the written request to revoke consent but would apply to any care given after the request has been presented.
5. For your security and right to privacy, all staff has been trained in the area of patient record privacy and a privacy office has been designated to enforce those procedures in our office. We have taken all precautions that are known by this office to assure that your records are not readily available to those who do not need them.
6. In the interest of the patient's health and progression through care, there may be consultation between staff and healthcare providers regarding their PHI.
7. Patients have the right to file a formal complaint with our privacy official about any possible violations of these policies and procedures.
8. If the patient refuses to sign this consent for the purpose of treatment, payment and health care operations, the chiropractic physician has the right to refuse to give care.
9. The patient understands and agrees to allow this chiropractic office to use their PHI for the purpose of treatment, payment, healthcare operations and coordination of care. Informed Consent to Chiropractic Treatment

The Nature of Chiropractic Treatment: The doctor will use his/her hands or a mechanical device in order to move your joints. You may feel a “click” or “pop”, such as the noise when a knuckle is “cracked” and you may feel movement of the joint. Various ancillary procedures, such as hot or cold packs, electric muscle stimulation, ultrasound, weighted traction, or exercises may also be used.

Possible Risks: As with any health care procedures, complications are possible following a chiropractic manipulation. Complications could include fractures of bones, muscular strain, ligamentous sprain, dislocation of joints, or injury to intervertebral discs, nerves or spinal cord. Cerebrovascular injury or stroke could occur upon severe injury to arteries of the neck. A minority of patients may notice stiffness or soreness after the first few days of treatment. The ancillary procedures could produce skin irritation, burns or minor complications.

Probability of Risk Occurring: The risks of complications due to chiropractic treatment have been described as “rare”. About as often as complications are seen from the taking of a single aspirin tablet. The risk of cerebrovascular injury or stroke, has been estimated at one in one million to one in twenty million, and can be even further reduced by screening procedures. The probability of adverse reaction due to ancillary procedures is also considered “rare”.

Other Treatment Options that could be Considered: (may include the following)

- Over the counter analgesics: The risks of these medications include irritation to stomach, liver and kidneys, and other side effects in a significant number of cases
- Medical Care, typically anti-inflammatory drugs, tranquilizers, and analgesics. Risks of these drugs include a multitude of undesirable side effects and patient dependence in a significant number of cases.
- Hospitalization in conjunction with medical care adds risk of exposure to virulent diseases in a significant number of cases
- Surgery in conjunction with medical adds the risks of adverse reaction to anesthesia, as well as an extended convalescent period in a significant number of cases

Risk of Remaining Untreated: Delay of treatment allows formation of adhesions, scar tissue and other degenerative changes. These changes can further reduce skeletal mobility, and induce chronic pain cycles. It is quite probable that the delays of treatment will complicate the condition and make further rehabilitation more difficult.

Unusual Risks: I have had any unusual risks of my case explained to me. I have read the explanation above of chiropractic treatment. I have had the opportunity to have any questions answered to my satisfaction. I have fully evaluated the risks and benefits of undergoing treatment. I have freely decided to undergo the recommended treatment, and hereby give my full consent to treatment.
